Special Education Workshop for Parents of Children with Disabilities

Saturday, March 24, 2012

8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

East Texas Center for Independent Living, 4713 Troup Hwy.

Learn how to:

- Obtain special education services and supports for your child
- Advocate on behalf of a child who needs special education
- Prepare for an ARD committee meeting with administrators
- Exercise your rights in creating your child's education plan

Registration is required for this free workshop. Please fill out and return the registration form to secure your spot now. You can also register by phone by calling 1-800-252-9108. Lunch will be provided for participants.

Limited money is available for parents who need childcare services in order to attend the workshop. Please indicate on the registration form if you need childcare reimbursement. Parents should not bring children to the workshop. American Sign Language and Spanish language interpreters will be provided.
